GCCSA, Inc. Seeking Nominations for 2020 Board of Directors

Change-making Houstonians may run for open seat: Under-Served Sector D

HOUSTON (March 9, 2020) – Gulf Coast Community Services Association, Inc. (GCCSA, Inc) is seeking candidates for a seat on its board of directors. The position will represent Under-Served Sector D, which encompasses the northwest quadrant of Harris County. This seat is one of four democratically elected positions voted by residents of a certain geographical area.

Candidates must be a resident of the under-served sector that he/she is seeking to represent. Individuals residing within any of the zip codes below are eligible to submit candidate applications:

77008	77038	77068	77086	77092	77388	77447
77009	77064	77069	77088	77375	77389	77484
77014	77066	77070	77090	77377	77429
77022	77067	77076	77091	77379	77433

GCCSA, Inc. creates pathways of opportunity for Houston’s vulnerable populations, with programs that include: Head Start and Early Head Start; scholarships for career, technical and vocational training with partner programs; continuing adult education courses; financial coaching; workforce development; and a robust food pantry.

Serving on GCCSA, Inc’s board of directors allows members to positively impact Agency programs that seek to serve vulnerable Harris County residents, be a voice for their neighbors, and interact with other leaders in Greater Houston.

Candidates must submit their applications by 5:00 p.m. on March 23, 2020.
